INSTRUCTIONS FOR FORM 133.15

A. GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

1. EXPLANATION OF FORM

- This is the form that a Texas crowdfunding portal (“portal”) must use to register with the Texas State Securities Board and to amend its registration as a portal. Form 133.16 must be used to withdraw from registration as a portal.
- Information on this form, including amendments, with the exception of certain personally identifiable information (such as social security numbers) is available to the public upon request.

2. WHEN TO FILE FORM 133.15

- A portal’s registration must become effective before offering or selling any securities in reliance on §139.25, the Intrastate Crowdfunding Exemption.
- A portal must promptly (within 30 days) file an amendment to Form 133.15 when any information previously submitted on the form becomes inaccurate or incomplete for any reason.
- A successor portal may succeed to the registration of a registered portal by filing a registration on Form 133.15 within 30 days after the succession.
- If a portal succeeds to and continues the business of a registered portal and the succession is based solely on a change of the predecessor’s date of incorporation, form of organization, or composition of a partnership or similar reason, the successor may, within 30 days of the succession, amend the registration on Form 133.15 to reflect these changes.
- A portal must also file a withdrawal on Form 133.16 promptly upon ceasing to operate as a portal.
- A Form 133.15 filing will not be considered complete unless it complies with all applicable requirements.

3. CONTACT EMPLOYEE--The individual listed as the contact employee must be authorized to receive all compliance information, communications, and mailings, and be responsible for disseminating it within the applicant’s organization.

4. REQUESTED INFORMATION

- Items 1-6 must be answered and all fields requiring a response must be completed before the filing will be accepted.
- Detailed information relating to an item reportable under Item 5 must be included in a separate document submitted as part of the application or amendment.
- Specific instructions for Schedules A, B and C are set forth at the beginning of each of those sections in Form 133.15.
- The execution page must be signed in the presence of a notary. The applicant and individual signing the execution page certify that the information contained in the form is current, accurate and complete and that, to the extent any information previously submitted is not amended, such information is currently accurate and complete.

5. FILING INSTRUCTION--The original application, amendment, and other information included as part of the filing must be submitted along with any applicable fees to the Securities Commissioner, Attn: Registration Division, P.O. Box 13167, Austin, Texas 78711. A copy of the initial Form 133.15 filing, amendments, and disclosure reporting information must be retained by the applicant and be made available for inspection by the Securities Commissioner upon request.
