➔SECTION 1. A NEW SECTION OF KRS 292.410 TO 292.415 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as expressly provided in this section and Section 2 of this Act, KRS 292.330 to 292.390 shall not apply to the offer or sale of a security after July 1, 2015, by the issuer of the security if all of the following conditions are met:

(a) The issuer of the security is:

- 1. A business entity organized under the laws of Kentucky;*
- 2. Authorized to do business in Kentucky; and*
- 3. Doing business in Kentucky in accordance with the Securities Act of 1933 Rule, 17 C.F.R sec. 230.147(c);*

(b) The transaction meets the requirement of the federal exemption for intrastate offerings in the Securities Act of 1933 Rules, 15 U.S.C. sec. 77c(a)(11) and 17 C.F.R. sec. 230.147;

(c) The aggregate offering price of the securities complies with the following criteria:

- 1. If the issuer has not undergone and made available to each prospective purchaser and the commissioner the opinion letter and applicable documentation resulting from a financial audit of its most recently completed fiscal year that complies with generally accepted accounting principles, the sum of all cash, and other consideration to be received for all sales of securities in reliance on this exemption, shall not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000) in a twelve (12) month period, less the aggregate amount received for all sales of securities by the issuer that do not take place prior to the six (6) month period immediately preceding or after the six (6) month period* immediately following any offers or sales made in reliance on this exemption;

2. If the issuer has undergone and made available to each prospective purchaser and the commissioner the opinion letter and applicable documentation resulting from a financial audit of its most recently completed fiscal year that complies with generally accepted accounting principles, the sum of all cash, and other consideration to be received for all sales of securities in reliance on this exemption, shall not exceed two million dollars ($2,000,000) in a twelve (12) month period, less the aggregate amount received for all sales of securities by the issuer that do not take place prior to the six (6) month period immediately preceding or after the six (6) month period immediately following any offers or sales made in reliance on this exemption;
3. In 2020, and every fifth year thereafter, the commissioner shall, by rule, cumulatively adjust the dollar limitations provided in this paragraph to reflect the change in the Consumer Price Index for all Urban Consumers, published by the federal Bureau of Labor Statistics, rounding each dollar limitation to the nearest fifty thousand dollars ($50,000); and

(d) All sales that are part of the same offering, made in reliance on this exemption, meet all of the terms and conditions of this exemption. Offers and sales that are made more than six (6) months before the start of an offering or are made more than six (6) months after completion of an offering, shall not be considered part of the offering, if during those six (6) month periods there are no offers or sales of securities by or for the issuer that are of the same or a similar class as those offered or sold under this exemption, other than offers and sales to individuals identified in the disclosure document;

(e) The issuer does not accept more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) from any single purchaser unless the purchaser is an accredited investor, as defined by the Securities Act of 1933 Rule, 17 C.F.R. sec. 230.501;

(f) Unless waived by written consent of the commissioner, not less than ten (10) days before the commencement of an offering of securities, pursuant to this exemption, the issuer submits the following to the commissioner:

its deposits or shares. The escrow agent for any such escrow account shall maintain the records necessary to obtain pass-through insurance for the escrowed funds. The commissioner may request information from the financial institution necessary to ensure compliance with this section. (i) If the sum of all cash and other consideration received and held in escrow, as required by paragraph (g) of this subsection, does not equal or exceed the target offering amount upon expiration of the offering deadline or the early closing of the offering, pursuant to paragraph (k) of this subsection, the transaction is void and the escrow agent shall return all funds deposited into the escrow account to the purchasers;
